

“The Emerging Epidemic of Lyme Disease”

Presented by the Lyme Disease Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania, Inc. and the national Lyme Disease Association, Inc.

AGENDA

June 10, 2006

1:00 PM Garnet Valley Middle School

Glen Mills, Pa

- 1:00: Andrew Dinniman, Ed.D. Chester County PA Commissioner and State Senator Elect - Lyme disease as the most important local health issue.
- 1:10: Pat Smith President, Lyme Disease Association, Inc.
“National Overview of Lyme Disease Issues”
- 1:40: Harvey Kliman, Ph.D. President, Lyme Disease Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania, Inc.
“Lyme Disease in Southeastern Pennsylvania”
- 1:50: Ann F. Corson, MD Featured speaker – Expert Lyme treating physician.
“Medical and Social Impacts of Lyme and Tick-borne Diseases”
- 3:20: Ed Tate The DEET Education Program*
“How to Properly Apply Repellant”
- 3:30: Q & A Session

Questions will be read from index cards filled out by audience members. Please take a card and pencil if needed to write your questions during the presentation. We will collect and sort the questions to minimize repetition. Thank you.

 This seminar is partially supported with educational grants by ‘The DEET Education Program’*