

Lyme Disease Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania and the national Lyme Disease Association Present:

Lyme Disease: An Emerging Epidemic

Saturday June 10, 2006

Garnet Valley Middle School, Smithbridge Road, Glen Mills, PA

Doors open at 12:30 pm, Speakers start at 1 pm
Informative literature and brochures are available

Featured Speaker:

Ann F. Corson, MD

Lyme disease and tick-borne disease physician expert

“Medical and Social Impacts of Lyme and Tick-borne Diseases”

Harvey Kliman, Ph.D.

President, Lyme Disease Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania, Inc.

“Lyme Disease in Southeastern Pennsylvania”

Pat Smith

President, Lyme Disease Association, Inc.

“National Overview of Lyme Disease Issues”

Ann F. Corson, MD

“Medical and Social Impacts of Lyme and Tick-borne Diseases”

Ed Tate

The DEET Education Program*

‘How to Properly Apply Repellant’

Q & A Session to Follow

*Lyme disease is the most prevalent tick-borne disease.
Come learn more about the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of this disease.*

Admission is free.

This seminar is partially supported with an educational grant
by ‘The DEET Education Program’*

For further information, directions and a map, visit our web site at www.Lymepa.org.

Disclaimer: The opinions of the presenters are not necessarily those of the Lyme Disease Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania (LDASEPA) or the Lyme Disease Association (LDA). The LDASEPA and the LDA are not endorsing or warranting the use of specific products. If you make a decision to use any repellent products, you need to carefully follow manufacturer recommendations.